16.2 Waiver: Any omission or delay on the part of Salora Capital in exercising any of its rights, powers or remedy, upon failure by the Borrower in the due and punctual fulfilment of the obligations of the Borrower hereunder shall not be deemed to constitute a waiver by Salora Capital of any of its rights to require such due, punctual and full performance by the Borrower.

16.3 Severability: If any provision in this Agreement shall be found or be held to be invalid or unenforceable, then the meaning of said provision shall be construed, to the extent feasible, so as to render the provision enforceable, and, if no feasible interpretation would save such provision, it shall be severed from the remainder of this Agreement and in such an event, the Parties shall use best efforts to negotiate, in good faith, a substitute, valid and enforceable provision or agreement, which most nearly reflects the Parties’ intent in entering into this Agreement.

16.4 Authorization: The persons signing this Agreement on behalf of the Parties represent and covenant that they have the requisite authority to so sign and execute this Agreement on behalf of the Parties for whom they are signing.

16.5 Variation: No variation of this Agreement shall be valid unless it is in writing (which, for this purpose, also includes email) and signed by or on behalf of each of the Parties. The expression 'variation' includes any variation, amendments, supplement, deletion or replacement however effected. In case of any variation through email, the variation shall be deemed to have been accepted by the Borrower if so, communicated by the email provided by the Borrower for availing the Loan.

16.6 Entire Agreement: This Agreement, together with the documents executed/exchanged by the Parties in relation to the Loan, supersede all prior discussions and agreements (whether oral or written, including all correspondence) between the Parties with respect to, or in relation to the Loan, and this Agreement, along with the Schedules hereto, together with the documents executed/exchanged by the Parties in relation to the Loan, contains the sole and entire agreement between the Parties with respect to the Loan.

16.7 Governing Law and Arbitration:

a. This Agreement shall be governed and construed in accordance with the substantive laws of India, and the Parties hereto submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the Courts situated at Gurugram, Haryana. The Parties irrevocably waive any objection, now or in the future, to laying the venue of any proceedings in the courts and tribunals at Haryana.

b. Nothing contained in this Clause 16.7 shall limit any right of the Lender and/or Salora to take proceedings (including criminal proceedings under the Payment and Settlement Systems Act 2007 or Negotiable Instruments Act, 1881) in any other court or tribunal of competent jurisdiction, nor shall the taking of proceedings in one or more jurisdictions preclude the taking of proceedings in any other jurisdiction whether concurrently or not and the Parties irrevocably submit to and accept for themselves and in respect of their property, generally and unconditionally, the jurisdiction of such court or tribunal, and the Parties irrevocably waive any objection they may have now or in the future to the laying of the venue of any proceedings and any claim that any such proceedings have been brought in an inconvenient forum.

c. Any disputes, differences, controversies and questions directly or indirectly arising at any time hereafter between the Parties or their respective representatives or assigns, arising out of or in connection with this Agreement (or the subject matter of this Agreement), including, without limitation, any question regarding its existence, validity, interpretation, construction, performance, enforcement, rights and liabilities of the Parties, or termination ("Dispute"), shall be referred to a sole arbitrator duly appointed by Parties. The seat and venue of the arbitration shall be in Gurugram, and the language of proceedings shall be in English. The award rendered shall be in writing and shall set out the reasons for the arbitrator's decision. The costs and expenses of the arbitration shall be borne equally by each Party, with each Party paying for its fees and costs, including attorney fees, except as may be determined by the arbitration tribunal. Any award by the arbitration tribunal shall be final and binding.

16.8 Specific Performance: The Parties agree that damages may not be an adequate remedy, and the Parties shall be entitled to seek an injunction, restraining order, right for recovery, suit for specific performance, or such other equitable relief as a court of competent jurisdiction may deem necessary or appropriate to restrain the other Parties from committing any violation or enforce the performance of the covenants and obligations contained in this Agreement. These injunctive remedies are cumulative and are in addition to any other rights and remedies the Parties may have at law or in equity.
